

PLEX SMART MANUFACTURING

Manufacturing & ERP Services from Revolution Group

Since 1995, Revolution Group has helped hundreds of manufacturers transform their businesses through innovative, industry-leading technology. Revolution Group partnered with Plex, by Rockwell Automation over 20 years ago. That deep experience with the Plex, makes us leaders in deployment, optimization, development and integration.

We have served more than 20% of the Plex customer base and have successfully implemented Plex for process and discrete manufacturers throughout the US and around the world.

Manufacturing & ERP Services from Revolution Group

DEPLOYMENT

Revolution Group deploys Plex, the world class, cloud-based SaaS ERP solution, to food & beverage, transportation, and configure-to-order manufacturers who need the most powerful and comprehensive technology solutions available. With our proven RevEdge™ ERP deployment methodology and hundreds of successful deployments, we have the experience to help you transform your business.

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Your manufacturing environment is dynamic. Shouldn't your ERP system be dynamic too? Our continuous improvement services ensure your ERP solution is running at peak performance and giving you the best return on your investment. Our consultants evaluate your current utilization and help you prioritize changes that will dramatically improve your ERP deployment experience.

DEVELOPMENT & INTEGRATION

Get more from your ERP deployment with systems integration, custom dashboards and reports. Revolution Group's developers help you expand and extend your ERP functionality with integration to legacy and third party systems and custom reports and dashboards. Their deep custom development experience and knowledge of manufacturing gives you the edge you need to tailor your system and reach your business goals.

TRAINING & EDUCATION

Could you and your staff use additional Plex training? Revolution Group offers many training classes for Plex including IntelliPlex, VisionPlex, Plex JumpStart, Cost Accounting and Advanced Modules. Classes can be conducted at your facility, remotely, or at our office. Our goal is to partner with you to create training that meets your needs.
